

Northern California Pole Presentational returns!

Northern California Pole Presentational offers dancers from across the Bay Area the opportunity to show off their artistry

For Immediate Release

San Jose, California ~ March 15, 2017 - Northern California's largest independently-produced pole dance fitness event is coming back to San Jose. Northern California Pole Presentational's (NCP) fourth event will be held August 26, 2017. Ellen Lovelace and Lori Myers are thrilled to continue their collaboration on this first-of-its-kind showcase. It's not a competition, it's a showcase with optional feedback! You can see highlights from last year's show here: <https://vimeo.com/194422744>

NCP was born out of a need to create performance and judged feedback opportunities for pole fitness enthusiasts in the Bay Area and the greater Northern California/Nevada region. This event is all-inclusive, meaning that anyone interested simply signs up, with no submission video required. Independent of any pole fitness studios, NCP will again be judged by a panel of well-respected competitors and judges from across the U.S. Dancers will perform on two 12-foot poles, professionally rigged by a top international circus aerialist.

Pole dance is quickly becoming one of the fastest rising fitness regimens. The first pole dance school started in 1994 in Canada. Twenty years later, there are studios all over the world. The extended San Francisco Bay Area is home to over 25 studios. While many of those studios host dance showcases, NCP is the first showcase to invite students to perform on a beautiful, professional stage, regardless of studio affiliation. If you are not familiar with pole dance as a sport, please check out this video of one of our judges, 2016 Pole Theater USA Pole Classique Champion, Renee Wu: <https://youtu.be/pXYROV56dNE>

Ellen Lovelace and Lori Myers have over nine years of experience as well-known and respected dancers, teachers, and bloggers in the NorCal pole community, which they have combined with Ellen's extensive experience in event planning. Said Lori about the event: "Nor Cal polers are hungry to showcase their talents and there is no time like the present to offer them that opportunity."

NCP will be held Saturday, August 26, 2017 as an all-day event at The San Jose Stage Company, located at 490 S. 1st Street in San Jose, California. For more information regarding participating, volunteering, attending or sponsoring the event, please visit our website: <http://www.PoleNorCal.com/>
